THE JOHN AND FRANCES ANGELOS LAW CENTER

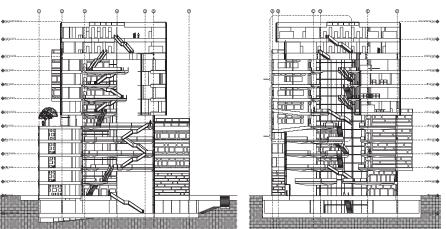

Interior Rendering - Atrium Space

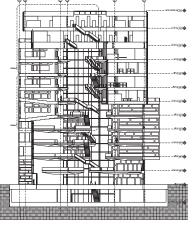

Design Development Studio

Original Architect | Behnisch Architekten Professors Demetrios Comodromos & Mark Mistur Project with Jessica Bristow

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF BALTIMORE

North-South & East-West Sections

Zinc-Titanium

Exterior Rendering - Main Entrance

Pivot Window 2" Rigid Insulation Vapor Barrier 1/4" Opaci-Coat Finished Wood Flooring Concrete Slab Metal Decking - W12x53 Steel Beams Wall Section Detail

Transparent Panel

/2" Gypsum Sheathing

1/2" Densglass

PAGE

Located in Baltimore, Maryland, the blocks of the Law Center can be seen as a synthesis of semi-autonomous entities, not a series of fully autonomous stacked buildings. The assembly of building blocks comes together to form a cohesive whole around the atrium. The circulation and atrium work together to form an internalized urban condition that is maintained within the context of the building.