

Project Description:

Combining Middle and High schools in one large building, we developed design motifs that could be flexible and made appropriate for all grade levels. Abstracting a beaver dam, wooden slat walls were designed in the reception areas and media centers. Continuing the abstraction, linear striping is employed in the wall and floor patterning throughout the building.

Beavercreek K-8 School

