AT THE SCHOOL OF HARD CIDER

The School of Hard Knocks is next door. If you're looking to learn more about fermented fruit juice, you're in the right place.

Maybe the School of Beer isn't for you. You want something less filling, maybe lighter in color, too, or perhaps you just want some adult apple juice.

Growler University staffs knowledgeable bartenders who can school you and your friends on facts about any of their 30+ available taps of beer, hard cider and wine.

Hop in today and drink your fill of knowledge.

Take the short walk from UO campus to Growler University on Villard Street today and tour the "campus," or find out more online at groweru.com.
